Re: WATERMARK CAPITAL, INC. P01000120238

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing this letter to ask you to look into my case pertaining filing Annual Report for Watermark Capital. I have incorporated my new business venture at the end of Dec of 2001 and paid all my filing fees. I have never received any other correspondence pertaining to filing any annual reports. My company is not even at the 'starting stage' and I have already received 2002 Uniform Business Report that requires $550 dollars to be paid, which basically I cannot afford to pay at this time. I also think that this is wrong since I did not even get my company off the ground and the paper work was filed 6 months ago. I did call Florida Department of State Division of Corporations and explained my situation. I was told to submit the attached paperwork with the fee of $150 so this is what I am doing now.

However, I would like you to review my case and see if any fees can be waived (including $150) as the company only existed for less than a week in 2001 and I have never received any correspondence to file UBR before.

Best Regards,

Paul K. Raczynski
