RE: 2006 Report Filing for: EAGLE VIEW DEVELOPMENTS, Inc.
DOCUMENT # P02000001363

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is sent to explain why we are late in filing the 2006 Report for the subject corporation. The Annual Report Notice was not received until today. I telephoned the Corporation's office and was directed to send this letter of explanation, which should avoid any late fee being attached.

While it may have no bearing, I underwent a heart operation and moved to a farm in Thomasville, Georgia to recover. As your records will show, I have submitted my report in January of the proceeding years. I did not receive a notice or form by March 2006, and called (and I believe wrote a letter) requesting the form. It was not until I received a "NOTICE OF INTENT TO DISOLVE" (attached hereto) which showed that mail had been sent to my former address, and it was not forwarded (until this notice). I then wrote for an order form which came in today's mail but shows a post mark of August 4, 2006. You now have my current and proper address and so I should have no trouble receiving mail direct.

For the above reasons of not receiving the annual report notice until today, I ask that the late fee not be attached to this filing. Therefore, I have attached my check for $150.00 fee payment, along with the completed form for your processing. Also enclosed is your Notice of Intent to Dissolve (no postmark) and your postmarked letter of August 24, 2006 which sent me the Notice Form, although not received in this "snail-mail" until today.

Your assistance and cooperation is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Thomas L. Neilson
