ARTICLE VI

BUSINESS AND PURPOSES

The general nature of the business and the proposed objects and purposes to be transacted, promoted, and carried on by the Corporation are to do any and all things hereinafter mentioned, as fully, and, to the same effect and extent, as naturally persons might or could do, including, without limitation:

(1) To engage in every phase and aspect of the practice of law, and to render professional legal services to any and all persons, firms, corporations, and other entities, and to the general public, in the state of Florida, and in all of its political subdivisions, and in every jurisdiction and before all courts and public and administrative bodies and otherwise, throughout the world, unless prohibited by law:

(2) To invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, and/or other types of investments, and to own real and/or personal property necessary for the rendering of professional legal services.

(3) In general, to do all things and to perform all acts necessary and proper for the accomplishment of its purposes or necessary or incidental to the achievement of the objectives of the Corporation, and to have and exercise all powers of any nature whatsoever permitted or conferred by law upon corporations in general, unless specifically prohibited by the Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act of the state of Florida as now existing or hereafter amended.

(4) The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of special powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VII

EXISTENCE

The Corporation's existence shall commence on the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation, and it shall have perpetual existence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has executed the foregoing Articles of Incorporation this 4th day of January, 2002.

MITCHELL B. HAIGLER
Incorporator
