RE: Long Electronics, Inc.

To the office of Division of Corporations,

Long Electronics would like to ask for reconsideration of an active status and forgiveness for failure to report. This is a new company and last year was the first year of incorporation. We were unaware of the procedure for filing. Also we never received any prior notices regarding the issue of filing a uniform business report or any other documentation except for this notice of a revoked or dissolved status of Long Electronics, Inc. I will attach a copy of the front of this notice, which will show that even this letter reached us late and with a forwarding expired label affixed. We are unsure why we did not receive any prior notice except maybe the address on file with your office was with a former business partner and that maybe he threw the notices away. Please accept our apologies and request for reinstatement for the corporation. Also if you could see to it to waive the penalties and reinstatement fees and please accept our payment for $150.00. This consideration would be greatly appreciated by this small business.

Sincerely,

Corey Long, director
