Attn: Kathy Ashton

December 17, 2004

Dear Kathy:

This letter is to inform your office of the problems made by the state processor who did not entered information on our UBR form from the year of 2003. I have enclosed a copy of the check that was cashed by the department of state on December 17, 2003. After speaking with your office, I was advised to file the 2004 UBR report along with the copy of the cashed check for the 2003 report. The check was in fact cashed but the report never got filed. Your office never contacted us and told us of the admin. dissolution or that we were no longer an active entity. After speaking to Kathy Ashton, she advised me due to the errors made by the state all penalties would be waved and to submit a check for $150.00 written to the dep of state for the year 2004. Our office thanks you ever so much for taking care of this matter.

Sincerely,
Michael G. Long & Associates, Inc
