ARTICLE IX
DIRECTOR CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

No contract or other transaction between this corporation and one or more of its directors, or between this corporation and any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one or more of this corporation's directors are directors or officers or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest, or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof authorizing, approving or ratifying such contract or transaction, or because his or her votes are counted for such purpose, if:

(a) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors, or a duly empowered committee thereof, which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested director or directors; or

(b) The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or

(c) The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is authorized by this corporation's Board of Directors, committee or its shareholders.

Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE X INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation hereby indemnifies the corporation's officers, directors, employees, or agents, past and present, his or her estate, heirs, executors, or administrators, to the fullest extent permitted or authorized by current or future legislation, and as authorized or permitted by judicial or administrative decision to the extent such decisions provide broader indemnification rights, against all fines, liabilities, costs, and expenses, including attorneys' fees, asserted against him or her or incurred by him or her arising from his or her capacity or status as a director, officer, agent, employee or representative of this corporation.

The right to indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled. The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and its officers, directors, agents, employees and representatives against fines, liabilities, costs and expenses, whether or not the corporation would have the legal power to indemnify directly against such liability.

Costs, charges and expenses, including attorneys fees, incurred by the corporation's officers, directors, agents, employees and representatives in defending any civil or criminal suit, action or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking to repay all amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized by this Article, and upon satisfaction of other conditions required by current legislation or by future legislation to the extent future legislation provides conditions less burdensome than that of previous legislation.

If this Article or any portion of it is invalidated on any ground by a court of competent jurisdiction, the corporation nevertheless indemnifies each officer, director, agent, representative and employee to the fullest extent permitted by all portions of this Article not invalidated and to the fullest extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE XI
TERM OF EXISTENCE

Commencing on the date of filing of the Articles of Incorporation with the Department of State the duration of the corporation is perpetual unless sooner liquidated or dissolved in accordance with law.

ARTICLE XII
AMENDMENT

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment hereto, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, and any right conferred upon the shareholders is subject to this reservation.

ARTICLE XIII
BY-LAWS

The By-laws of the corporation shall be made and adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors at the first meeting. The By-Laws of this corporation shall be for the government of the corporation and may contain any provisions or requirements for the management or conduct of the affairs and business of the corporation, provided that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation or contrary to the laws of this State or of the United States.
