Every amendment shall be approved by the Board of Directors, proposed by them to stockholders, and approved at a stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all the Directors and all the stockholders sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.

ARTICLE XII: SECTION 1244 STOCK

It is the intention of the incorporator of this Corporation that the first Board of Directors adopt the plan under section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code allowing a limited ordinary loss to individuals on stock of a "small business corporation", which qualifies under the code.

ARTICLE XIII: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

The following additional provisions for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the Corporation, its stockholders and Directors, are hereby adopted as a part of these Articles of Incorporation:

- A. The Board of Directors from time to time shall determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders, and no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account or document of the corporation except as conferred by a Statute or authorized by the Board of Directors, or by a resolution of the stockholders.

- B. No person shall require to own, hold or control stock in the corporation as a condition precedent to holding an office in this Corporation.
- C. The Directors may prescribe a method or methods for replacement of lost certificates, and to prescribe reasonable conditions by way of security upon the issue of new certificates therefore.
- D. The Corporation shall have the power to include in its Bylaws and regulatory and restrictive provisions relating to the proposed sales, transfer or other disposition of any of its outstanding stock any of its stockholders. The manner and form, as well as all relevant terms, conditions and details thereof shall be determined by the stockholders of this Corporation; provided, however, that no such regulatory or restrictive provisions shall effect the rights of third parties, without actual knowledge thereof, unless such provisions shall be plainly written upon the certificate evidencing the ownership of said stock.
- E. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other Corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Directors is or are interested in, or is a Director or Officer or are Director or Officers of such other Corporation, and any Director or Directors, individually or jointly may be interested in such contract or transaction of the Corporation or in which the Corporation is interested, and no contract, act or transaction of the Corporation with any person or person, firm or corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any Director or Directors of the Corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation, and each and every person who may become a Director of the Corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from thus contracting with the Corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or Corporation in which he may be in anywise interested. Any Director of the Corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company.
- F. Nothing in these articles of incorporation shall be taken to limit the power of the corporation. The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, including its name, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights conferred on officers and shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
