expressly provided under these Articles of Incorporation). The voting, dividend and liquidation rights of the holders of the Common Stock are subject to and qualified by the rights of the holders of the Preferred Stock (when, if and to the extent shares or series of such stock are designated and issued).

2. Voting Rights. Each holder of record of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock standing in such holder's name on the books of the Corporation. Except as otherwise required by law or pursuant to Section B of this Article IV of these Articles of Incorporation, the holders of Common Stock and the holders of Preferred Stock shall vote together as a single class on all matters submitted to shareholders for a vote (including any action by written consent).

Members of the Board of Directors must be natural persons who are at least 18 years of age but need not be residents of Florida or shareholders of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VI - DIRECTOR ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors (or of a committee of the Board of Directors) may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if the action is taken by the written consent of all members of the Board of Directors (or of such committee of the Board of Directors). The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each director (or committee member), which consent(s) shall be filed in the official minute books of the Corporation in which proceedings of meetings of the Board of Directors are recorded. ARTICLE VII - CALL OF SPECIAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

Except as otherwise required by law or by or pursuant to these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not be required to call or hold a special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation unless (in addition to any other requirement(s) of applicable law or elsewhere in these Articles of Incorporation) (i) the holders of not less than thirty-three and one-third percent (33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %) of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the special meeting sign, date and deliver to the Corporation's Secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held; or (ii) the meeting is called by (a) the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, (b) the Corporation's Chairman of the Board of Directors or Chief Executive Officer, or (c) the Corporation's Secretary upon the written request of any two or more members of the Board of Directors. ARTICLE VIII - SHAREHOLDER ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if such action is taken by the written consent of the holders of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote on such action having not less than the minimum number of votes (including, if and as applicable, the minimum number of votes of any voting groups entitled to vote separately on the matter) necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares of capital stock entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. In order to be effective, the action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, dated and signed by approving shareholders having the requisite number of votes entitled to vote thereon, and delivered to the Secretary or other officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the official minute books of the Corporation in which proceedings of meetings of the shareholders are recorded (the "Shareholder Minute Books"). Whenever action is taken pursuant to this Article VIII, the written consent(s) of shareholders, or the written reports of inspectors appointed to tabulate shareholder consents, shall be filed in the Shareholder Minute Books. No written consent of shareholders shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within 60 days of the date of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner provided in this Article VIII, written consents executed and delivered by the number of holders required to take action are delivered to the Corporation by delivery as required in this Article VIII. Within ten (10) days after obtaining authorization of corporate action by written consent of shareholders, notice shall be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing or who are not entitled to vote on the action, which notice shall comply with the provisions of the FBCA. Any action taken by written consent under this Article VIII shall have the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

other person for monetary damages for or relating to any statement, vote, decision, action or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, unless the breach or failure to perform his or her duties as a director satisfies the standards set forth in Section 706.0831(1) of the FBCA (or a successor provision of such law) as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. To the fullest extent permitted under the FBCA and other applicable law, a director of the Corporation shall not be or held liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take action, if he or she performed the duties of his or her office in compliance with Section 607.0830 of the FBCA (or a successor provision of such law) as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. If the FBCA is amended hereafter to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent authorized by the FBCA, as so amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article IX shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

The right to indemnification conferred by this Article X shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending or otherwise participating in any proceeding in advance of its final disposition only upon the Corporation's receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay such amounts if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article X.

The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time in the Corporation's Bylaws or otherwise by resolution of the Board of Directors, provide rights to indemnification and/or to the advancement of expenses to officers, employees and agents of the Corporation similar to those conferred in this Article X to directors of the Corporation.

The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article X shall not be exclusive of any other right(s) which any person may have or hereafter acquire under these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Corporation, any statute, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Any repeal or modification of this Article X shall not adversely affect any rights to indemnification and/or to the advancement of expenses of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification with respect to any acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.
