To Whom It May Concern:

Your office was sent a letter (copy enclosed) with a check for $150.00 (ck # 2105) in August of 2003 to file my Uniform Business Report with my new address change. I then received a new letter from your office (copy enclosed) to my new address in which I had to fill in my Federal Employer Identification number and mailed the completed information back to your office. Since my check had been processed I was under the impression that my UBR was filed and everything was ok. To my surprise, my accountant notified me that my UBR had not been filed. My secretary spoke with Katrina from your office today who said your office sent me a letter to my old business address for a signature which was never forwarded to me. Also, I kept a copy of the application I sent to your office which has two signatures on it so I do not understand the problem. Please correct this as soon as possible as this is an urgent matter. Also, again please note my new address and forward any new correspondence to this address only. Thank you for your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Heydrich, D.M.D.
