Re: Reinstatement of C I Corporation

To whom it may concern:

Please be advised that the undersigned represents C I Corporation regarding the above captioned matter.

Attached, please find a copy of a letter that was sent to your attention back in October of 2003, requesting that this company be reinstated without any penalties. This letter was sent along with a check of $150.00 for the renewal in 2003. Unfortunately, we thought everything was resolved until just recently when we were once again advised that the company was, in fact, never reinstated. I made an inquiry with my bank to find out that check number 6360 was never cashed and that the documents were never returned to our office.

This has been a most unfortunate situation for my client, where he sent the reinstatement information to the Department of State just two months after the company was Administratively Dissolved because the UBR for 2003 was never received by him and was therefore not filed in a timely fashion. Once again, due to the above mentioned circumstances, we respectfully request that C I Corporation be reinstated without penalty. Enclosed, please find a check in the sum of $300.00 for the Uniform Business Reports for 2003 and 2004.

We appreciate your anticipated courtesy and cooperation regarding this matter.

Very truly yours,

Charles S. Serfaty, Esq.
