To Whom It May Concern,

We have just recently become aware that our UBR form for this year 2003 was never filed because we never received it. We believe this is due to the fact that our address changed in 2002 to our current address and for some reason the mail was not forwarded correctly.

I called your help line very distressed that our report has not been received and a very courteous gentleman on the phone instructed me that all I had to do was download a blank UBR form, fill it out, send a check for $150 and give an explanation as to why the form had not been filed.

I would like to thank him and your staff for taking the time in helping us with this matter and we hope that our address will be updated in your records so that we will receive the report for next year and hope that you understand that if we were aware that it was due we would have paid it immediately and did so as soon as we did find out about it.

Best Regards,

Victor Couture
