To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to request abatement of the penalty my client is being charged. He moved in August of 2002 and never received his original annual report. The post office did manage to forward the second notice to him. He would have mailed the money in on a timely basis had he known. This was his first year doing business and he is a long distance truck driver so he doesn't get in to see me like he should. Please take this matter into consideration. I've printed off an original form and made the changes needed for the address so this will not happen this year.

Thank you,

Lisa Wiggins
Accountant
