Re: Annual Corporation Fee and request for consideration to waive Reinstatement Fee.

Dear Ms. Cooper:

Please be informed, retrospective to the years 2005 and 2006, I did not receive notification prompting for the renewal and submission of the Uniform Business Report which was due and expired November 2005. Nor did I receive the renewal application booklet. Neither have I received the renewal notice and documents for the annual period which expired November 2006.

On approximately December 18, 2006 I spoke with an individual from your Office who informed me, in order to continue effectively operating, a reinstatement fee of $750.00 must be submitted. On December 20, 2006 I received a letter specifying the amount of the reinstatement fee and containing the Corporation Reinstatement Form.

At this time I am hereby enclosing, by certified mail, a payment of $300.00 representing the complete / total renewal fees for the years 2005 and 2006. In addition I am asking you to consider waiving the reinstatement fee, as the failure to pay for years 2005 and 2006 was not willing and with intent, but due to anticipation of the receipt of the proper notice(s) from you, and my eventually forgetting to inquire. Thank you in advance for any consideration and or efforts given to waive the reinstatement fee.

Please note you may contact me anytime at (305) 305 - 5204 for further information, clarification or any necessary arrangements. It is with due respect that I eagerly await your reply.

Sincerely

Michael Davis, President
