We never received our bill for corporation renewal. Instead we received a notice of late payment. We have lived in the same address for ten years and this has never happened. We contacted your department and were informed that there was an amnesty available. That we could request an application and return it with a check of $150. Which we did. Our check has been cashed. I am writing this letter as was our conversation, in which I said I would. Hope this clears things.

THANK you

From Carlos Martinez
