Dear Dept. of State,

Please find the attached completed Uniform Business Report for the above referenced business and the corresponding payment of $ 150.00 for such. We were advised by your office today that we could send in a letter of explanation and request in order to file late for this report and pay the original fee amount. The above business did not receive the annual report and as it is a new corporation it was not aware that it should be looking for this form in the mail. They were also not aware that it was going to be dissolved. Only when we tried to get a Fictitious Name filing done for ownership by this corporation were we told that it had been admin'ly dissolved.

We request that you please accept this $ 150.00 check for full payment of the filing of this UBR for 2003 and process as usual. This business now knows the filing requirements of this form for future years. We thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Hiep V. Nguyen, Pres.
