Dear Sir or Madam,

We have just received your notices that indicated that the above-mentioned companies were administratively dissolved, due to lack of payment of the registration fees.

The employee responsible for the filing of these corporation documents is no longer with us, and left after destroying a number of corporate documents, which we discovered when he left. Having received these notices of dissolution, we now believe that this was a deliberate act on his part.

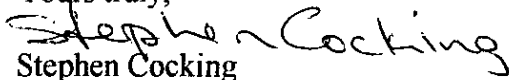

This has been a rather bad year for our business, and it would present a severe hardship for us to have to pay the fees charged for reinstatement.

It is with the greatest of respect that we ask if we can be allowed to pay the usual fees for the registration of the corporations, and to this end we enclose checks numbered 6697 and 6698, each in the amount of $150.00.

We anxiously await your response, and urge you please to assist us in this regard. We will try to keep a closer eye on such things, even though we now have another accountant responsible for this.

Thank you so much for your cooperation and consideration, and should you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Yours truly,

Stephen Cocking
