ARTICLE VI - INDEMNIFICATION

To the full extent permitted by law, the corporation shall indemnify person made or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he, or his testator or intestate, is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or served any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise in any capacity, at the request of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII - SPECIAL PROVISIONS

(a) No holder of stock of the corporation of any class shall have any preferential, preemptive or other right to subscribe for or to purchase from the corporation any stock of the corporation of any class whether or not now authorized, to purchase any bonds, certificate of indebtedness, noted or other securities, which the corporation may at any time issue, whether or not the same shall be convertible into stock of the corporation of any class.

(b) The Board of Directors, in addition to choosing the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the corporation, may choose one or more Vice President, an Assistant Secretary, and Assistant Treasurer and such other officers as the Board shall deem advisable, and such officers shall serve for such terms and have such duties as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

(c) The stockholders may, in their discretion choose a Chairman of the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the corporation; or if the annual meeting of the stockholders is not held, at any meeting of the stockholders thereafter called pursuant to the By-Laws of the corporation.

(d) No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any director or directors of the corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm, or corporation, and each and every person who may become a director of the corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from this contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in anyway interested. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or controlled corporation without regard to the fact that he is also director of such subsidiary or controlled corporation.
