Dear Sirs,

Re : Waiver of Late Fee

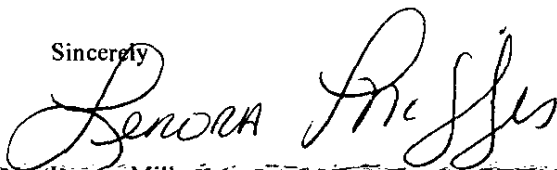

Subject: L & L CATERING Reference Number P02000017260

We mailed our annual report with payment of $150.00 in April 2003, this was returned to us in an envelope (see copy enclosed) post marked May 22, 2003, which was received May 27, 2003, with a letter requesting that, the Uniform Business Report (UBR) be completed and returned within 30 days. We returned the completed form, letter and check all attached together within the requested time.

We were surprised when we received your letter, dated June 18, 2003, requesting a late fee of $400.00. We have complied with the letter we received May 27, 2003, on a timely bases and you acknowledged receipt of the check, therefore, you must have received the letter as they were all attached. We made several telephone calls to your office, the last being July 3, 2003, when we spoke with a Mr. Tyrone Scott, who advised that we write a letter explaining the situation and ask that the late fees be waived.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely

Lenora Miller
President
