Dear Sirs:

In downloading this form from your website, it was called to my attention that this form should have been filed by May 1st. We made a phone call to your office as, somehow, I had inadvertently misread the filing date as May 31st, and felt our report was being filed on time. During our phone call we were told that we should send our check in for the usual filing fee amount of $150, with an explanation of extenuating circumstances, which I can only say at this point was due to ignorance or a misunderstanding.

If our report cannot be accepted with the $150 filing fee, please advise, as we would have to dissolve the Corporation. As we have only been in business about a year and are just getting underway, we would not be able to pay any penalty affixed to filing after May 1st.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Yours respectfully,

Carrin Chang

President
