To Whom It May Concern: /RH:

It is very disheartening to think that you treat your citizens as you do. I respectfully submitted what I felt was a very valid reason for the Annual Report for Pure Success Marketing, Inc. being filed late.

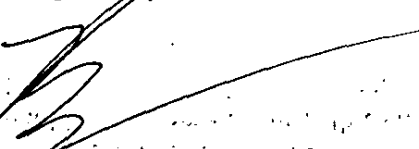

The reason was, that my father had passed away and my finances were not as organized as usual. I did not go into details out of respect to my father. However, since you denied my request and kept my check, I have no other recourse but to attach his death certificate and further explain.

My Father had Lung cancer that spread to his brain. Within 1 week after diagnosis he could not communicate with us anymore, within 3 months he had passed away. This business is a small business and is already in the red because my attention was diverted from the business because of my father for such a long time. And now there is an additional $400 fee due.

I cannot believe the state of Florida is so heatless as not to grant a waiver for this $400. I am very disappointed in my Government.

I hope you will reconsider your position with this further explanation that I did not want to provide before out of respect for my deceased parent, and waive the additional $400, which this business cannot afford to pay.

Respectfully,

Bryan Guentner
President
Pure Success Marketing, Inc.
