Dear Sirs,

Enclosed please find my check No. 1086 for the amount of US 150.00 (ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS) to cover the payment for Year 2003 for Profit Corporation Uniform Business Report UBR.

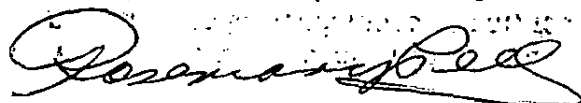

I wish to ask you to please accept this payment to keep my very small Corporation going since it is just now when I am trying to start it.

I have had several inconveniences and the major one is a divorce I just went through and then a trip to Honduras to see my father who passed away and I just had to prioritize and keep going. I am sorry. I do understand the Law is the Law and I am just trying to find someone who could help me get started with my very small business, which has been my dream for many years. I am 59 years old and it has not been easy. When I said prioritize, the Corporation is very important, but at the time I did leave everything ready to be sent and it was not and now when I come back I have to ask of you to please consider what had happened.

As you can see I left the documents for the S-Corporation filled and the corporation papers filled to be sent to you on time and they weren't and now I do face another question. Could you please accept a late report without having to pay the US$550.00 that is requested? This is a very personal request since I do need help at this moment doing this to keep going. This letter does not sound professional but I rather am sincere and I will accept your determination.

Please call me any time at my Cell. 305 303 1773 or my office 305 593 8366 extension 200 during the complete day or at 305 595 7123 after 6.00 PM.

Thank you very much and best regards,

Rosemary Pell
