ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS

1. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the corporation's board of directors and proposed by them to the corporation's stockholders, and approved at a stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stock entitled to vote thereon, unless all of the directors and all of the stockholders of the corporation sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment to these articles of incorporation be made.

2. The initial by-laws of this corporation shall be adopted by the board of directors. The by-laws may be amended from time to time as provided therein.

3. Ownership of stock shall not be required to make any person eligible to serve either as an officer or director of this corporation.

4. Any subscriber or stockholder present at any meeting, either in person or by proxy, and any director present in person at any meeting of the board of directors shall conclusively be deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless he or she shall make objection at such meeting to any defect or insufficiency of notice.

5. The board of directors is hereby specifically authorized to make provision for reasonable compensation to its members for their services as directors, and to fix the basis and conditions upon which such compensation shall be paid. Any director of the corporation may also serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefor in any form.

ARTICLE X. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify any director, officer, or employee, or former director, officer, or employee of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer, or employee of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by such person in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer or employee, except in relation to matters as to which he or she shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. The corporation may also reimburse any director, officer or employee for the reasonable costs of settlement or any such action, suit or proceeding, if it shall be found by a majority of a committee composed of the directors not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum) that it was to the interests of the corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer, or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer or employee may be entitled under by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or otherwise.
