Re: Uniform Business Report

August 20, 2003

Dear FL Dept of State,

Our corporation, Meenan Construction, Inc. never received a Uniform Business Report, and we did not know of this filing since this is our first year. It may be that we did not receive one since we had moved, and even though we gave a change of address to the post office—no report from your office was ever forwarded.

We subsequently found out about this obligation, and called to get a blank form so that we could file it. We have prepared the form, and are submitting it with a check to you for the original $150.00, since we did not receive or know about this. We respectfully ask you to allow us this adjustment since this is our first year and we did not know of this report.

We thank you in advance for your attention to this important issue, and ask that you contact us at any time if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

 / PRCES.
9-8-03

William Meenan, President
