A. Provisions Relating to Common Stock.

1. Voting. Except as otherwise required by law or as may be provided by resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing the issuance of any class or series of Preferred Stock as provided in Section B of this Article IV, voting rights shall be vested exclusively in the holders of Common Stock. Each holder of Common Stock shall have one vote in respect of each share of such stock held on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders, including, without limitation, the election of directors.

2. Dividends. Except as otherwise required by law or as may be provided by resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing the issuance of any class or series of Preferred Stock as provided in Section B of this Article IV, the holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, out of the assets of the Corporation legally available therefor, such dividends payable in cash, stock or otherwise, as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors.

3. Liquidating Distributions. Except as otherwise required by law or as may be provided by resolutions of the Board of Directors authorizing the issuance of any class or series of Preferred Stock as provided in Section B of this Article IV, and after payment or provisions for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive all the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to shareholders in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, ratably, in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them.

B. Provisions Relating to Preferred Stock.

1. General. The Preferred Stock may be issued, from time to time, in one or more classes or series, with such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof as shall be stated and expressed in the resolution or resolutions providing for the issue of such class or series which shall be adopted by the Board of Directors from time to time, pursuant to the authority herein given.

2. Preferences. Authority is hereby expressly granted to and vested in the Board of Directors to authorize the issuance of Preferred Stock from time to time in one or more classes or series. The authority of the Board of Directors with respect to each class or series of Preferred Stock shall include, but not be limited to, determination of the following:

(a) the number of shares constituting that class or series and the distinctive designation of that class or series;

(b) whether the holders of shares of that class or series shall have voting rights in addition to the voting rights provided by law and, if so, the terms of such voting rights;

H020001062544

H020001062544

(c) whether the holders of shares of that class or series shall be entitled to receive dividends and, if so, the rates of such dividends, conditions under which and times such dividends may be declared or paid, any preference of any such dividends to, and the relation to, the dividends payable on any other class or classes of stock or any other series of the same class and whether dividends shall be cumulative or noncumulative and, if cumulative, from which date or dates;

(d) whether shares of that class or series shall have conversion or exchange privileges into or for, at the option of either the holder or the Corporation or upon the happening of a specified event, shares of any other class or classes or of any other series of the same or other class or classes of stock of the Corporation and, if so, the terms and conditions of such conversion or exchange, including provision for adjustment of the conversion or exchange rate in such events as the Board of Directors shall determine;

(e) whether shares of that class or series shall be redeemable and, if so, the terms and conditions of such redemption, including the date or dates upon or after which they shall be redeemable and the amount per share payable in case of redemption, which amount may vary under different conditions and at different redemption dates;

(f) whether shares of that class or series shall be subject to the operation of a retirement or sinking fund and, if so subject, the extent to and the manner in which it shall be applied to the purchase or redemption of the shares of that series, and the terms and provisions relative to the operation thereof;

(g) the rights of shares of that class or series in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation and any preference of any such rights to, and the relation to, the rights in respect thereto of any class or classes of stock or any other series of the same class; and

(h) whether shares of that series shall be subject or entitled to any other preferences, and the other relative, participating, optional or other special rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of shares of that series and, if so, the terms thereof.

The shares of each class or series of Preferred Stock may vary from the shares of any other class or series thereof in any or all of the foregoing respects. The Board of Directors may increase the number of shares of Preferred Stock designated for any existing class or series by a resolution adding to such class or series authorized and unissued shares of the Preferred Stock not designated for any other class or series. The Board of Directors may decrease the number of shares of Preferred Stock designated for any existing class or series by a resolution subtracting from such class or series of unissued shares of Preferred Stock designated for such class or series, and the shares so subtracted shall become authorized, unissued and undesignated shares of the Preferred Stock.
