Dear Sir:

We received the 2003 Uniform Business Report today, May 28, 2003. Our office is located in a business complex and the Report was delivered to the wrong address. It was hand delivered to us today by one of the other businesses, evidently a couple of months after the fact.

We called your office, explained what happened, and were told to send the report with our check for $150.00, and a note explaining the situation. We would appreciate very much a dispensation of the penalty.

Sincerely,

Robert V. Malone, DC
Administrator
