The proceeds of the stock subscribed for will be at least as much as the amount necessary to begin business.

ARTICLE TEN

The corporation shall have the further right and power to:

From time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the corporation (other than the stock book) or any of them shall be open to inspection of Stockholders; and no Stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account, book or document of this corporation except as conferred by statute, unless authorized by a resolution of the Stockholders or Board of Directors.

The corporation may in it's by-laws confer powers upon it's Board of Directors or Officers, in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers authorized and expressly conferred by statute.

Both Stockholders and Directors shall have power, if the by-laws so provide, to hold their respective meetings, and to have one or more offices within or without the State of Florida, and to keep the books of this corporation (subject to the provisions of the statutes) outside the State of Florida, at such places as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation, in this manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all right conferred upon Stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, being the original subscriber to the capital stock hereinabove named for the purpose of forming a corporation for profit to do business both within and without the State of Florida, do hereby make, subscribe, acknowledge and file these Articles, hereby declaring and certifying that the facts herein stated are true, and do respectively agree to take the number of shares of stock hereinabove set forth, and accordingly have hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of February, 2002.
