ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF JAMR ACQUISITIONS, INC.

FILED
2002 MAR -1 PM 12:58
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE FLORIDA

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the Corporation is JAMR ACQUISITIONS, INC.

ARTICLE II

DURATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE

This Corporation shall have perpetual existence. These Articles of Incorporation shall become effective and corporate existence of this Corporation shall commence upon the filing of these Articles.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSE

This Corporation is organized to transact and carry on any activity or business permitted under the laws of the United States and the State of Florida; included in the foregoing activities and businesses of this Corporation is any and all lawful business including building and maintaining real properties and improved facilities where swimming technique may be taught.

ARTICLE IV

CAPITAL STOCK

This Corporation is authorized to issue 7,000 shares of One ($1.00) Dollar par value common stock, which shall be designated "Common Shares."

ARTICLE V
INITIAL CAPITAL

While this Corporation is not required by the laws of the State of Florida to have any amount of paid in capital with which to commence business, this Corporation shall nonetheless begin business with an initial capital in the amount of not less than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars.

ARTICLE VI
PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

A. Every shareholder, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this Corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which he already holds, shall have the right to purchase his pro rata share thereof (as nearly as may be done without issuance of fractional shares) at the same price per share at which shares are offered to others.

B. No common stock shareholder of this Corporation shall dispose of any such shares of this Corporation without first offering the same to all other common stock shareholders upon terms identical to those which may be offered by any person not a shareholder herein. The rights established in the immediately foregoing sentence shall be called the "rights of first refusal." Such rights of first refusal shall initially be pro rated amongst all shareholders. But before any such stock shall be sold to a third party not a shareholder herein, any one or more common stock shareholders shall have the right to acquire all or their proportional share of all of the stock subject to such third party offer; provided, that the selling shareholder shall be under no obligation to sell to a shareholder of record upon the terms aforesaid unless all of the shares subject to a third party offer shall be purchased by a common stock shareholder or shareholders of record herein upon the same terms offered by said third party. It is the intent and purpose of this provision that no new common stock shareholders shall acquire interests in this Corporation if any one or more existing shareholders wish to acquire all of the stock eligible for sale at terms equal to those offered by a non-shareholder bona fide purchaser. It is the further intent and purpose of this provision that existing shareholders shall, in the event of such acquisitions, acquire shares in proportion to their pre-existing holdings herein, thereby maintaining their relative voting powers in common shares of this business as far as mathematically possible. It is also the intent and purpose of this provision that a shareholder wishing to sell all or a portion of his stock in this Corporation to a non-shareholder bona fide purchaser shall have no duty to sell less than all or such portion of his stock in this Corporation to a common stock shareholders or shareholders of record. The right of first refusal established hereunder obligates a selling shareholder only when the complete offer of a third party is matched in all particulars by common stock shareholder(s) with acquisition rights hereinbefore established.

ARTICLE VIII

MANAGEMENT

A. Pursuant to the provisions of Florida Statutes, as the same exists upon the adoption of these Articles of Incorporation, the business of this Corporation may be managed by the shareholders of the Corporation, rather than by a Board of Directors. Any action of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting, (also pursuant to Statute) without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing is prepared setting forth the action so taken and is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. In the management of the business of the Corporation, the act of not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take action at a meeting shall be the act of the Corporation. Each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote, in person, in writing or by proxy for each share of common stock held by such shareholder. A majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to a vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the shareholders for the management of the business of the Corporation.

B. Should the shareholders of this Corporation so elect, they may by resolution and by-law establish a Board of Directors to manage the business of this Corporation. In such event, the shareholders shall prescribe the duties, functions and methods of operation of such Board of Directors with particularity and in appropriate by-laws.

The following provisions are inserted herein for the regulation of the business and to govern the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation:

A. In addition or supplementation to the restrictions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation may restrict the transfer of its shares in any manner consistent with law and holders of shares of stock of this Corporation may include in agreements among themselves limitations upon the transfer or assignment of the shares of this Corporation and this Corporation may become a party to said agreements.

B. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation in the absence of fraud shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the shareholders of the Corporation is or are interested in, or is a director or officer or managing shareholder of or are directors or officers or managing shareholders of such other corporation. Further, any shareholder(s) individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to, or may be interested in any such contract or transaction of the Corporation or in which the Corporation is interested. No contract, act or transaction of the Corporation with any person or persons, firm or corporation, in the absence of fraud, shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any shareholder(s) of the Corporation is a party or are parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction, or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm or corporation; and each and every person who may become a shareholder of the Corporation is hereby relieved from any liability that might otherwise exist from thus contracting with the Corporation in which he may be in any way interested. Any shareholder of the Corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any subsidiary or controlled company without regard to the fact that he also is a director of such subsidiary or controlled company.

ARTICLE XIV

AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in the manner provided by law. Every amendment shall be approved by the shareholder(s) representing a majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon, unless the shareholders representing a majority of the outstanding stock sign a written statement manifesting their intention that a certain amendment of these Articles of Incorporation be made.
