Dear Sir or Madam:

Re: Uniform Business Report

We write with reference to the above matter and enclose our duly completed UBR for 2003 together with our remittance in the sum of $150 being the requisite fee.

Please be advised we are a foreign owned corporation who relocated to our present address in January of this year. Unfortunately, we did not receive the Uniform Business Report at our previous address, nor has our mail been forwarded, despite request to do so.

We were regrettably unaware of the need to file the UBR, having not received the original or having advised that we must do so.

Upon discovering this requirement, we have taken immediate steps to rectify the matter. In the circumstances, we would humbly submit that late filing of our UBR is through no fault of our own and should respectfully request that the penalty fee be waived in this instance.

We look forward to hearing from you in due course. In the meantime, we should take this opportunity to thank you in anticipation of your assistance.

Yours truly,

Sharon T. Fisher
President & General Manager

Encs.
