ARTICLE II

DURATION

This Corporation shall have a perpetual existence, unless discontinued by agreement of the board of directors, or dissolved by the Florida Secretary of State; and shall commence business upon issuance of a Corporate Charter.

ARTICLE III

CORPORATE MISSION

The Corporation shall have unlimited power to engage in and do any lawful act concerning any or all lawful business for which corporations may be organized under this Act, including but not limited to:

- A: Ownership, management and operation of roof repair, asphalt paving, painting, and home improvement businesses
- B: Enter into any lawful arrangement for sharing profits, union interest, reciprocal association or cooperative association of any corporation, association, partnership, individual or other legal entity for the carrying on of any business.
- C: Engage in the business activity of owning and leasing real estate and equipment, either as owner, partner, or under representation of another.

D: Acquire by purchase, exchange, gift, bequest, subscription or otherwise, and to hold, own, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, sell, assign, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of or deal in or with its own corporate securities or stock or other securities, including, without limitations, any shares of stocks, bonds, debentures, notes, mortgages or other obligations and any certificates, receipts or other instruments representing rights or interests therein or any property or assets created or issued by any person, firm, association or corporation, or any government or subdivision, agencies or instrumentalities thereof; to make payment therefore in any lawful manner or to issue in exchange therefore its own securities or to use its unrestricted and unreserved earned surplus for the purchase of its own shares, and to exercise as owner or holder of any securities any and all rights, powers and privileges in respect thereof.

E: Do each and every thing necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the subjects herein enumerated, or which may at any time appear conducive to or expedient for protection or benefit of this Corporation and to do said acts as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do in any part of the world as principals, agents, partners, trustees or otherwise, either alone or in conduction with any other person, association or corporation.

F: The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as purposes and powers and shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the general powers of the corporation and the enjoyment and exercise thereof as conferred by the laws of the State of Florida and it is the intention that the purposes and powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Article III shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.
