To Whom It May Concern:

I have been attempting to file my Corporate Annual Report since April 26, 2004. Each time I have attempted to process the file and pay the fee using my VISA card, either an error page has been displayed or a page requesting further or repeat information has been displayed. When the additional information is supplied, an error page shows up or repeat information is again requested: this sequence goes on until a page appears indicating a transmission error has occurred. I have to date been unable to get the report filed online although many attempts have been made at different times of the day. I called the Division of Corporations today for assistance.

As the due date has now passed, the filing fee has also gone up to $550.00 instead of $150.00. I spoke to Gary, an agent in the department who told me to download the corporate annual report form and submit my report with a letter explaining the reason it is past due. He told me to include a check for $150.00 with the annual report in anticipation that due to the above stated circumstances being beyond my control, the late filing fee would possibly be waived. I am averse to paying the late fee because I have made good faith attempts to use the on-line system to file the report.

Please find a copy of my annual report and a check for the $150.00 filing fee enclosed.

Thank you,

Shannon Wood Williams, LMFT
