To Whom It May Concern:

I recently received this notice of dissolution along with this application for reinstatement. I called immediately as I had filed the necessary paperwork in January and you cashed the check. I was informed that the original form was missing the FEI number and that a notice was sent in February,
I never received that notice and as you cashed the check back in January I was told to fill out the reinstatement form with the FEI number and include this letter.

Yours truly,

Diana K McCarthy
