To Whom it may concern,

I contacted your office yesterday (9/9/03) to advise your office that we were just now opening our business and to see if we needed to file anything stating such. I was advised that my Uniform Business Report was late. I had not received any prior notice and was informed that I was to file immediately and to include this letter explaining that I had not received the notice so that any late fees would be waved. Enclosed you will find my UBR along with my check. Now that I know this needs to be done each year I will be downloading the form from your website each January instead of waiting for anything to be sent. I don't know much about this stuff, but I am learning fast and the mistake will not be made again. Thank you for your patience and understanding in this matter. If you need any further information, please feel free to contact me at (813) 907-3735.
