Dear Secretary of State:

First and foremost, I apologize for the delay in my response to this matter. There are two reasons I did not write sooner. One is that, due to my travels, my mail was temporarily forwarded, which can be noted by the envelope enclosed. The other reason is I have been rather ill lately and have been slow to meet all my obligations. Again, I'm truly sorry.

But in any case, what was needed to complete the application doesn't exist. There are no other officers or directors. The company name can be somewhat misleading, I am the only one at this time.

Please let me know if this is acceptable as complete or if I must do something further. It has not been my best year, so I would appreciate your understanding on this matter. Thank you.

Very truly yours,
Lois Hoff
