Dear Ms. Chesser:

In the beginning of February, 2002, I filed Articles of Incorporation for a corporation called Del Norte, Inc. I am the registered agent for the corporation. I never received a letter from the Division of Corporations stating that the Articles of Incorporation were filed. Today, I called the Division of Corporations and the person I spoke to told me that you were the specialist handling the filing of these corporation papers and that the Articles of Incorporation had been rejected because the name, Del Norte, Inc., was already in use. I do not have a document number as I never received any correspondence informing me that the Articles of Incorporation were rejected. Therefore, I am sending up new Articles of Incorporation with a new name for this corporation. The new name the director of the corporation chose is EKOS of Mexico, Inc. I understand that you still have my payment in your possession. If you have any questions, you can reach me or my wife, Linda, at 813-961-0094.

Please forward a stamped copy of the Articles of Incorporation and the letter stating that the Articles of Incorporation were filed to me, the registered agent:

Thank you for taking care of this matter.

Very truly yours,

Walter Sanders
