Dear Sirs:

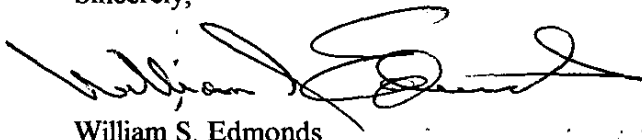

On December 29, 2003, I spoke with a representative in your department, Marquitta, who informed me that we could download the form for re-instatement of our corporation on line. I had difficulty doing this, so I requested a form by mail. Marquitta instructed me to fill out the form and return it with a letter of explanation, as well as a check for $300.00 to re-instate our corporation.

Please find enclosed the form, as well as a check for $300.00. (I see on the form that the amount is more, but she told me that with a letter of explanation the amount would be $300.00. If there is an additional amount due, please let me know, and I will send it Priority Mail.

The reason that we did not file the necessary annual report is that we changed our address from Port Orange, FL., to St. Petersburg, FL., and I called to change our address with your department, but apparently it was never registered. Therefore, when it came time for the annual report, we never received a notice, and in the confusion of moving, I neglected to call you to request a blank form. I realize that this was my responsibility, and I realized just recently that too much time had passed, therefore I called and spoke to Marquitta, who told me our corporation had been put into inactive status.

Please re-instate us, and if you have any additional questions, you may contact us at any time. (727) 204-9110 cell phone

Sincerely,

William S. Edmonds
