In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the corporation shall have and may exercise the following powers:

A. In the purchase or acquisition of property, business, rights or franchises, or for additional working capital, or for any other object in or about its business or affairs, and without limit as to amount, the corporation shall have the power and authority to incur debts and to raise, borrow and secure the payment of money in lawful manner, including the issue and sale or other disposition of bonds, warrants, debentures, obligations, negotiable and transferable instruments, and evidences of all kinds whether secured by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or otherwise.

The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any rights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.
