Re: Domestication of Spirit Technologies, Inc.

Dear Division of Corporations:

Enclosed herewith per the forms retrieved from your Website are the official Transmittal Letter with $128.75 in fees, the Certificate of Domestication and the Articles of Incorporation of SPIRIT TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

Please be advised that this corporation was originally incorporated in Delaware Newtec, Inc., and was admitted to do and has been transacting business in Florida under the name of "Newtec Palletizing, Inc." Because substantially all business of the company is transacted from its Tampa location, we have elected to domesticate the company in Florida and to change its name to "Spirit Technologies, Inc."

Appropriate forms to dissolve the Delaware corporate entity have been filed simultaneously with this filing, to be effective as of April 1, 2002. Also, a Fictitious Name Application has been filed in Florida to preserve the name in the event there may be any delay between time of filing of this set of Domestication documents and the effective date per your requirements.

The registered agent for Spirit Technologies is an individual resident of Tampa, FL, Mr. Guy Ayel, but this firm performs the legal work for the company from our offices in California. I have been empowered as Assistant Secretary of the company to sign the Agent's name, Guy Ayel, on his behalf, but if for any reason you need his original signature, please advise and we will provide promptly.

Please send a certified copy of the filing to the above address at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Richard L. Mitchell
