Re: Uniform Business Report

To Whom it May Concern;

It recently came to my attention that my corporation, Internet Worldwide Broadcast Co., Inc., Document # P02000046042, was listed as being in Administrative Dissolution.

Although I am a relatively new corporation and this is my first I could not understand why. Upon this coming to my attention I called the State of Florida, Department of Corporations to inquire about this. I spoke with a representative by the name of Thelma.

The conversation was pleasant and Thelma was helpful in explaining to me that a UBR for the year 2003 had not been filed. She added that one had been mailed out however I have not received it. Thelma also informed me that this does happen now and again and suggested that the mail system was at fault.

When inquiring as to what I do now Thelma said that when this sort of thing happens it would be acceptable to file it now along with the customary fee. She also said that I should include a letter requesting a waiver for the penalty fee. Kindly consider this letter as a formal request for said waiver.

I've downloaded the necessary UBR form from the Internet, have filled it out and it is enclosed along with a check.

Thank you very much and kindly extend my gratitude to Thelma for her helpfulness. She was indeed a pleasure to speak with.

In closing I'd just like to add that I've marked my calendar already for next year so as to prevent this sort of thing from happening again.

Sincerely,

Maria Salvucci
President,
Internet Worldwide Broadcast Co., Inc.
