ARTICLE X

The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE XI

The stockholders of this corporation may divide themselves into groups for the purpose of obtaining unit control in the corporation; and when any agreement is made between stockholders owning at least eighty (80%) percent of the stock then outstanding in the corporation, such agreement shall be binding

H0200012/894

upon the corporation; and particularly, the stockholders are authorized to include in such agreement entered into between themselves provisions which will confer upon individual groups of power to elect certain numbers of directors, and in particular, stockholders may include in the agreement between themselves the following as valid matters of agreement, to-wit:

1. The manner and method in which and the persons by whom directors may be elected.
2. Any limitation upon the transferability or assignment of the stock.
3. The conferring of preemptive rights of purchase upon the stockholders as conditions precedent to the sale of any other stock.
4. Any matter related to effectuating the purposes included in any of the foregoing matters.

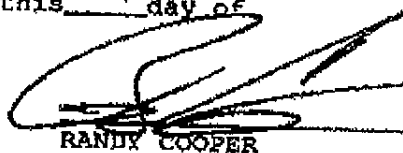

Agreements between the stockholders shall continue to be binding upon the corporation until there is filed with the President and the Secretary of the corporation, in duplicate, a written instrument, signed by the persons who originally created such Stockholder's Agreements (or their successor in ownership, providing such succession in ownership shall have been accomplished in accordance with the terms of the Stockholder's Agreements) consenting to the revocation and cancellation of the Agreements among the Stockholders.
