Glenda E. Hood:

I currently own 6 corporations. I had and I must stress "had" a so called Professional Management Company that kept many important matters from my attention. They did not do the job that I paid them to do. Invoices and other important documents were lost or misplaced.

Due to my various investments my time has been spent on the larger projects and I neglected to check on the Management Company who had the power to sign checks and pay bills as they came due. For whatever reason, they did not pay the annual reports. I only found this out when I received your notices of dissolution.

I would greatly appreciate your understanding in this matter. Enclosed are six checks each for $150.00 to reinstate the six companies.

Very truly yours,

Jay C. Bumpers III
