ARTICLE IX

No contract or other transaction between the corporation and any other corporation, and no act of the corporation, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the shareholders of the corporation are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are shareholders, directors or officers of, such other corporation. Any shareholder individually, or any firm of which any shareholder may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction, of the corporation, provided that the fact that he or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the shareholders or a majority thereof, and any shareholder of the corporation who is also a director or an officer of such other corporation, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any shareholder's meeting of the corporation which shall authorize any such contract or transaction, with like force and effect as if he were not such a shareholder, director or officer of such other corporation, or not so interested.

ARTICLE X

The corporation shall indemnify its officers to the fullest extent permitted by law either now or hereafter.

I, the undersigned, being the original incorporator of the foregoing corporation, do hereby certify that the foregoing constitutes the proposed Articles of Incorporation of said corporation.
