Dear Sir or Madam:

Note that we have just started this company approximately a year ago, and I must admit that there are several items we must get into place. One of the such items is the mailing address of our corporate mail. I received the "Notice Of Administrative Dissolution Or Revocation". Be advised that the notice was sent to my home address of which my ex-spouse now lives, and neither my partner nor I ever received the notice. At this time, we are novice at the starting of this new business and should have been a little more on top of this. I spoke to a representative of your office, and I was told that if we never received the Notice, we have a good chance of having of corporation reinstated with the $150.00 reinstatement fee. This would be of great appreciation, in that our company is new, and is just beginning to see some type of profit.

Enclosed is the check for $150.00, and the listed completed form. Please feel free to contact me if there are any questions.

Sincerely,

Al.Lewis (954-347-2514)
