Dear Mr. Blankenbaker,

We are re-filing the documents per your request of your letter dated October 25, 2004. However, we still maintain our original position based on the taxpayer's statement (fax attached) that he never received the annual reports.

Please reconsider the taxpayer's position in this matter and reinstate the above named corporation.

If we can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Cohen, P.A.

I received the following from the State of Florida. It appears that the required report has never been filed, and the cost to reinstate the corporation will be $750.

I guess my question is how would I have ever known to file this report? They have never sent me any literature, notification, etc. I guess e.s.p. is the answer.

Had it not been for a refinancing effort, I still wouldn't have known the corporation is considered inactive. Its all very confusing.
