RE: Late Uniform Business Report for QCSP Quality Customer Service Providers, Inc.

~~This letter is to request a waiver of the late charges for my UBR Report. The accounting firm that handled my Incorporation did advise me of the fact that I would have to reregister my corporation each year. When I spoke with them on numerous occasions this year, from February through June, (because they were handling my corporate tax filing), I questioned them several times about the notice I was to receive regarding this matter. I was advised that they were handling it. So when I received this notice in July, out of ignorance, assuming this to be another form of solicitation (as I had received numerous since becoming incorporated) I did not pay attention to it. This was the first notice I did receive regarding this and was not formerly aware of when this registration was initially required.~~

Based on this information, please consider waiving the late fees. I have enclosed a check for $150.00 to cover the initial UBR fee. I am now aware of the filing dates and will be on a timely matter in the future.
