Your online filing has been reset, you may go back online and try to file again or download the form and mail it with your payment. There is a box on the online form under your corporate name that can be checked to avoid the $400 late fee if you choose to file online. If you choose to file by mail, please include a letter with your completed form and check indicating that you attempted to file online before May 1 and were locked out or weren't successful.

I am hoping you can help me. I got online to file my 2004 annual report and when I got to the point of getting the amount due, I had to get off because I wasn't prepared to pay $550.

I have a corporation that has been dormant for the past year and since I am late, I wonder if it is worth filing or just closing it down and then re incorporating at a later date. In any case, I couldn't get back into the renewal area on the internet because it was already in process.

Can you clear that, so if its better for me to renew or if I can get the penalty removed, I would appreciate it.

Thank you,

Katherine A Graves

To Whom It May Concern:

Please find the enclosed Annual Report Notice #P0200005344 to be filed.
I tried on several occasions to file online and was not able to. You'll also find a copy of an email that I received from your office regarding this difficulty. Please accept the original fee of $150.00 due to this difficulty.

Sincerely,

Katherine A. Graves
