To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to inform you that my client is respectfully requesting reinstatement of their corporation. Please see attached Corporation Reinstatement form for corporation detail. We would please ask that you please abate all penalties and interest from this account due to the reason that the original 2003 Uniform Business Report was never received at their location. This company had an accountant who would file any forms necessary in behalf of the company. Unfortunately, their accountant passed away in the beginning of 2003. They were not aware of the proper documentation needed to file with your department nor any other. They have since hired our firm and we have just noticed that they are still delinquent with their 2003 annual report. We ask that you please abate all penalties and interest from their account due to the unfortunate incident. Assuming the pardon will be granted, please accept the following payment of $150.00 as payment for the 2003 Uniform Business Report. In addition, we are attaching a copy of the uniform business report for 2004 along with the payment of $150.00.

Should there be any further questions, please feel free in contacting my offices.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Carolina Rivaspiata
