To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in response to the notice I received regarding the dissolution of my corporation, DSG Enterprises, Inc.. I did not receive the two prior notices, as you stated in the notice and I am terribly surprised by the dissolution. This is my first corporation and subsequently the first year following the incorporation, so I feel very ignorant that I did not know about this, so that I would've known to contact you if I did not get the scheduled annual report form.

I am so sorry for not knowing about this; I do not recall my attorney mentioning anything about this either when I incorporated. I am very responsible and take serious pride in what I do and never would have let this happen had I known or received a notice. Please accept my apology and my desire to reinstate my corporation.

Also, I noticed that there is an error on the paperwork for the annual report. Heather Gaurkee was removed from the corporation of DHG Enterprises, Inc. and then we changed the name to DSG Enterprises, Inc. and the only director should be myself, Darlene S. Gant. We did file all of the appropriate paperwork with the State of Florida to confirm the name change and director status. Can you please make the appropriate changes to correct this?

Thank you,

Darlene S. Gant
