To whom it may concern,

This letter is regarding the recent receipt of the 2003 UBR by my company. This 2003 UBR stated that the fee for 2003 was delinquent and had been increased to $550 due to the fact that the report was not filed in May. This report, however, was the first of its kind that my company had received. We received no such report earlier this year as your website suggests that we should have. One possible reason for this is that as of the beginning of 2003 my company changed both its physical and mailing addresses as you were notified in a letter that I personally wrote to the division of corporations at that time. I am including with the completed 2003 UBR the check for the original $150. Please see that my company information is updated so that this miscommunication can be avoided in the future.

Best Regards,
Solomon D. Greene
