Re: Natural Woodscapes, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have received a notice from your office stating that my company was administratively dissolved. I now understand that there is an annual fee that must be paid to keep my corporation active in the state of Florida. Since this is a new corporation, I was unaware.

Prior to receiving this notice, I cannot remember ever receiving a bill or notice asking me to renew my corporation. Please understand, I am aware that ignorance is not an excuse, but I am learning as I go. I have hired an excellent accountant and he has explained my annual responsibilities to the State of Florida.

Attached you will find an Application for Reinstatement and a check for $150.00. I understand that there is normally a sizeable penalty for not filing in a timely manner. I would ask that you waive this fee and reinstate my corporation. I will be diligent in the future and I have put people in place to ensure that I do not make these mistakes again.

I would appreciate your notifying me of your decision and should I have to pay that penalty, I will do so immediately. Thank you for your efforts with this matter.

Respectfully,

Connie Collingsworth
Vice President
