To Whom It May Concern:

In April, we filed our UBR report and sent in a check in the amount of 150.00 dollars. (check #1099) In June, we received a notice stating that our report was still outstanding, and received another form to be completed by September 10th and now with the amount of $550.00. We had already sent in the form and payment properly. On June 30th, we sent out another completed form with a copy of the original UBR report filed in April, a new UBR report (due Sep. 10), a copy of the check, and an explanation letter. We only received back a letter stating that the new form that we had sent in was incomplete because there was no payment in the amount of $550.00. We received no other correspondence. In addition, the copy you sent back had our explanation items deleted. We had marked on all forms that an original was already sent in April. There is no excuse for this type of behavior. Those actions constitute forgery. On September 4th, we spoke with a gentleman named Steve who instructed us to send in a copy of the September 10th form re signed and re dated, a new check in the amount of 150.00, and a copy of the old check. We are sending all of this. Please handle this matter appropriately and efficiently. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated. Please correspond back through mail to the above address or by email at bestofgainesville@yahoo.com.

Sincerely,

James M Fischer
